RESTATEMENT OF AMERICAN PRINCIPLES

by Marilyn R. Allen

The Administration is not the Government actually: these officials, from the President on down, are just the "hired hands" of the citizens: of We The People. They are our SERVANTS, elected to properly administer and enforce the Constitution: to defend, preserve, and protect the Constitution."

As Abraham Lincoln said, it sometimes becomes necessary to overthrow the men in the Administration for the simple reason that THEY are overthrowing the CONSTITUTION. And the Constitution is infinitely more important than these sometimes subverted politicians. Quoting Mr. Lincoln in this connection:

There is an important sense in which the Government is distinct from the Administration. One is perpetual, the other temporary and changeable. A man may be loyal to his Government and yet oppose the peculiar principles and METHODS of the Administration Let the people know the TRUTH and they will save the Country.

Yea, verily, LET THEM KNOW THE TRUTH — which is now so drastically censored and kept from them! As a matter of fact, our GOVERNMENT is based upon the Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, the Mayflower Compact, and the CHRISTIAN principles upon which our heritage and traditions have been built — and which were confirmed and recognized by Supreme Court decree in 1892: by virtually all State Constitutions; and include the Monroe Doctrine and such documents as George Washington's Farewell Address, which warned against Foreign entanglements and favoritisms.

The TRUTH is that genuine, informed Americans are bound to criticize, and in fact, bound to advocate the impeachment of the present regime [as well as its predecessors] in Washington, if we would save our American Form of Government! Because

Why Get In Deeper

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council. Republished from Letter No. 360.

The American Republic is being stampeded out a veritable conspiracy.

Not that those at the top of our Government desire of their own wills to lead us into slavery. But other men and other nations are dictating America's course. Time after time — at Yalta, Potsdam, Panmunjom, Geneva — our leaders have been continually maneuvered into moves and concessions that will spell surrender to international Communism dominated by Soviet Russia — if they keep on.

Some of our top leaders are ignorant even now of the unprecedented threat of the destruction of our liberty and the reduction of all Americans (except those who would conform) to complete thralldom. They are under pressures from outside influences, mostly alien, that amount to control.

Hardly a single major move in our foreign policy since 1933 has been in the interests of America herself.

George Washington's warning to America in 1796 against "the insidious wiles of foreign influence" has been almost completely abandoned during the present generation.

Let's recite some of the steps since 1933.

1. Roosevelt's recognition of Soviet Russia — by an executive agreement.

2. Our involvement in World War II, largely through false propaganda and the secret machinations of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

3. Our rushing to Moscow in June, 1941, when Germany attacked Russia, to begin to hand over $11 billion of Lend Lease to Soviet Russia whose leaders had been on record since 1917 as determined to destroy our form of government — and still are. No small part of the present Soviet power to harm, if not destroy America, can be traced to that fatuous pouring out of our treasure.

4. Roosevelt's suggestion at Casablanca in 1943 that both Germany and Japan would be required to make unconditional surrender — a course which led to the destruction of the two nations that had been and could continue to be the chief natural obstacles to Communism.

5. Our undue haste in 1945 in disbanding most of our military units as soon as the War, which our men had brilliantly won, was over; and the largely secret destruction of some $35 billion (repeat, billion) of material, much of which could have been used later in our own defense.

6. Our leadership in forming the United Nations and our craven fawning then and at other times before Soviet Russia. Our granting Soviet Russia three representatives to America's one in the UN General Assembly.

7. The whole series of events whereby through the treasonable activity of a handful of "intellectuals" and through the ignorance and stupidity of men like General George C. Marshall, we betrayed Chiang Kai-shek and sold out the Chinese people to the Communists. No wonder Marshall has now come out in favor of surrendering our sovereignty to a union with Britain and other nations. If without such union America is already so dominated by Britain, what liberties would we Americans have left after such union had been effected?

8. Internationalist influences prompted Truman to force the General Assembly of the UN, November 27, 1947, to vote the partition of Palestine. This action changed 350 million Moslems from friends of America to enemies.

9. Thirty thousand Americans gave their lives in the "police action" in Korea. Under British influence Truman cravenly recalled MacArthur, because the British Government didn't want us to win. Britain, in the vain hope of hanging on to Hong Kong, has all along wanted us to make concessions to the Chinese Reds. We ignominiously accepted "peace" in Korea because it was sugar-coated as a "cease-fire." The cease-fire released Red Chinese armies to attack in Indo-China.

10. The Geneva conference handed over Northern Indo-China to the Communists, and we actually joined in guaranteeing these Communist conquests.

Each of all these events lowered America's prestige in the eyes of the world. Each of the events in the Far and Middle East caused us to lose face with all Asiatics.

And now the latest defeat is in the signing of the Austrian Treaty under which Austria is taken out of those countries that ever can join with the West in defense of Christian civilization.

THE NEWARK STAR-LEDGER, FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1955

Friday deadline set on city loyalty oaths

City Business Administrator John S. Flockhart yesterday set next Friday as a deadline for some 7,000 city employees to sign loyalty oaths and fill out questionnaires concerning subversive organizations.

Flockhart said all city department heads had been notified the City Council had formally adopted a resolution calling for the loyalty oath and answers to the questionnaires.

Members of the council and Mayor Carlin also will be required to sign the oaths and questionnaires before a notary public or lawyer.

ORGANIZATIONS CHECKED Besides a loyalty oath and questionnaire, each city employee received a list of 300 organizations branded subversive by U. S. Attorney General Brownell.

City employees are being asked whether they are or have been connected with the Communist Party or any of the organizations on Brownell's list.

The completed oaths and questionnaires, according to Flockhart, will be submitted to City Personnel Officer Samuel B. Finkelstein for processing.

ANSWERS WILL DECIDE Whether or not City Council will bring up its tabled resolution calling for an investigation into subversion among city employees will depend on the answers submitted.

Meanwhile, the New Jersey Region of the American Jewish Congress urged the City Council to "reconsider and repeal" its resolution requiring loyalty questionnaires.

Through its president, Rabbi Joachim Prinz, the organization advised the council "there is no reason to believe that there is any real problem of security in the Newark city government. If there were, circulation of the questionnaires would accomplish nothing . . ."

IMPARTIAL POLICY

At the same time the Essex County Council, Jewish War Veterans, announced it is maintaining a policy of "complete impartiality" with respect to the three teachers suspended by the Board of Education after they pleaded the Fifth Amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee. The veterans' group reaffirmed its "confidence in the fairness of the American system of justice" and said it "sincerely hopes and believes" the teachers will receive a fair hearing June 7.

Those who attended the eight day trial in Newark, N. J., during March of this year, in which Rabbi Prinz secured a judgment of Thirty Thousand Dollars against Mr. McGinley, will remember how Prinz and his attorney Jerome Eisenberg squirmed when the defense counsel attempted to introduce documents on Communists fronts. The Newark News of May 11th states that Eisenberg at a meeting of Newark teachers advised them to plead the 5th Amendment when called before the Un-American Activities Committee. Here we produce an article (above) showing Prinz's excitement when the City Council of Newark demanded employees to sign a loyalty oath. Shame on anyone who mentions that nasty word Red while America is being taken over by Marxism.

Khazar is American Tsar

There is one well-known anecdote how somewhere in Germany an American officer explained to his Soviet colleague the difference between American democracy and Soviet despotism. "You see"-he said-"in our country I may go to the President's house ring the bell, and when he opens the door I may tell him without fear that he is a SOB; can you do the same?" "But certainly"-replied the other, -"on my return home I can go to the Kremlin, ring the bell, call papa Stalin and tell him, that American President is a SOB, and Stalin would only laugh and pat me on the back".

If, however, I were that Soviet officer, I would tell to my American friend something different. In fact, I would tell him, approx., such a thing: do not confuse the issue, my dear; our Stalin WAS the power which ruled my motherland, and, consequently, it was, indeed, dangerous to offend him in the way you suggested; but your President ISN'T, and to prove this let us make such an experiment: upon your return to the States go the White House, ring the bell, call your President and tell him: "Sir, I like you, because you are one of us whom we chose to govern our country; but I hate and mistrust those dim shadows who stand behind your back, who hold the strings of your power, who are invisible and untouchable, and whom you fear as much as I do, although you would never dare to acknowledge this openly; we would have a much stronger, happier and cleaner country if the hordes of "Asian Khazars" would never reach our shores.

Would you dare to make this experiment, my friend? I doubt it greatly because you know well enough the consequences of such "defamation": you would lose your job, as Mr. Vitt did recently; or, if you are from the State where one of our "Khazars" is our Governor, you would be thrown in jail; and there is no question that from this moment you would be a social outcast, a "nazi", a pariah infected with a dangerous and unclean ideological disease, intolerable in a "free country; you might also be persecuted for this "defamation" and lose your shirt in courts; and even you might be considered as a heretic by your Church because some of your religious leaders declared "anti-Khazarism to be a sin! Am I right, my friend? and if so, WHO, then, is the despotic Tsar the real power in your "free" country whom it is nearly as dangerous to offend as it would be to offend Stalin himself?

Here, by the way, I must make a certain reservation: by "Tsar" I do not mean the former Russian Emperor, but, the imaginary "Tsar" of the fictions fabricated by the numerous American "Experts on Russian Affairs".

And, in conclusion, let us make an interesting and instructive comparison between the new American Tsars and the former Russian Emperor: the last-named, as you should know, was the symbol of the state, and a kind of spiritual leader of his Christian subjects; of course, any defamation of such exalted personage had to be most severely punished, and so it was: the culprit had to pay a fine of one hundred rubles, [about $50.00], or, if he could not pay, he got one month jail sentence instead. And, incredible to say, the much abused Russian Orthodox Church did not consider this crime as a sin!

It seems, therefore, that on the final count it was somewhat less dangerous to defame the Emperor of the despotic and backward Russia, than to tell the truth about the "Tsar Khazar", ruler of a democratic country.

SCYTHIAN

Common Sense receives hundreds of wonderful letters encouraging us to increase our efforts. Often we are criticized for not publishing them. The letter on this page is one of many received from important Americans who have the courage to voice their opinions. Those who know General Moseley recognize that he has the sterling patriotic character and understanding needed by all leading Americans today. Unfortunately, the United States is pathetically undernourished when it comes to this type of American leadership.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

May 12, 1955

Hon. Herbert Brownell, Jr.
Attorney General of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

In this period when unjust attacks are being made on Mr. Conde McGinley, editor and publisher of COMMON SENSE, I ask you to permit me to record officially a brief of what I know of this outstanding American patriot.

My record of 43 years active service in the Army is available to you. In my closing years I served as Deputy Chief of Staff for General Douglas MacArthur, in the War Department. Thereafter, I commanded the 4th Corps Area and the 3rd Army. During a part of this period, the President was my Assistant in the War Department. I do not forget for a second the oath I took upon entering West Point, an oath repeated with every promotion, to support and protect the Constitution of the United States. I shall continue to obey that oath as long as I am permitted to live. I am well and strong, still active in my work.

The Constitution guarantees a free press and freedom of speech. In this tragic period of our national history, when well-known organizations operating within our borders openly, threaten our destruction, Mr. McGinley has had the courage and character to inform the American people of the facts and the truth. In his work he has made every effort to avoid error or any statement that could be interpreted as untrue even in the slightest degree.

Quite naturally Mr. McGinley, in fighting communism, has been attacked by the Jews who have been seriously involved in that conspiracy, as the record shows. I went through all this myself. They began their attack on me when I appealed to them openly to join us in fighting communism. In fact, communism could be crushed in a week if the Jews generally were sincere in their efforts opposing communism.

Mr. McGinley has opened the eyes of our people to the dangers of the present situation in a manner no publication or individual in public life has dared to do, although they know the truth of McGinley's evidence. The political and financial power of the Jews is so great that no politician dares criticize them or even refer to them by name. The few who have been courageous enough to do so have generally been thoroughly smeared and defeated.

In a pamphlet of "FACTS" about the American Jewish Committee, printed several months ago, some of their accomplishments are listed. It is explained how they apply the "Quarantine Treatment" to anyone opposed to their interests and plans. Such an individual is blacklisted throughout the news and his or her name and activities are never mentioned, so great is their power over the press and radio.

I have known Mr. McGinley well for several years. I marvel at the punishment he has taken without it defeating his aims and purposes in the least. He is a Christian of the finest type and highest character. If our Republic is finally saved, Mr. McGinley should be called before the assembled Congress and given a medal of honor for his heroism. That heroism has not been limited to a single act, but it has stood out every day and every night throughout the years while the enemy planned his destruction.

If you permit Conde McGinley to be destroyed, it is positive proof that our nation will be destroyed in the same way - and by the same gang. To show how far these conditions have developed, I was recently in conference with one of our greatest living Americans (a civilian). I said to him - "You and I will never see again the Republic that was in being when we left college." "No," he replied, "that Republic has gone for all time." From the evidence that reaches me, it appears that our whole system of jurisprudence has fallen to a low level. Too often it appears that justice is no longer available in the courts; but rather, it is for sale in the market place. Even the ethics of the individual lawyer have reached a new low, as all statistics show.

Faithfully and sincerely yours,

George Van Horn Moseley

WHY GET IN DEEPER?

This Austrian Treaty has been touted in the United States as a triumph. Mr. Dulles has boasted about it. Mr. Eisenhower has indicated his great satisfaction.

But how is it viewed in other lands? We have heard from some of our correspondents in Germany since the signing of the treaty. Thinking Germans are thunderstruck. They know we have welshed on many an agreement in the Far East. They know all about what we did in Yalta in betraying various European countries, including East Germany. But they were not ready for such an Austrian Treaty. One German correspondent said: "It has been a stab in the back, for the treaty had been different in the first place."

One of our acquaintances recently talked with the Yugoslavian Ambassador to Germany who told him that Yugoslavia was about to sign a peace treaty with Russia. That would kiss goodbye to the more than one billion dollars we have invested in Yugoslavia.

In God's name — when is American foreign policy going to turn American?

And the latest development is the proposed "Big Four Conference" of the United States, Britain, France and Soviet Russia. If the history of the past 22 years is any criterion, there is not the slightest possibility that any good will come to the United States from such a conference. Nothing but harm can come. If possible, we shall have approached an even greater height of contemptibility in the minds of the other nations of the world.

And what makes this conference even worse to thinking Americans is the fact that the only reason for our willingness to enter it (and Eisenhower completely reversed himself in a few days' time in "reluctantly" agreeing to it) was that it was thought it might help the Conservative Party of Great Britain in the elections of May 26. Now that the Conservatives have won a substantial majority in the House of Commons, clearly our willingness to sit down with Soviet Russia was probably a minor factor.

Nevertheless, we should remember what George Washington said: "There can be no greater error than to expect or calculate upon real favors from nation to nation. It is an illusion which experience must cure, which a just pride ought to discard." Why, then, should the great American Republic reverse its foreign policy in any important respect as a favor to any country? We know Britain will still exert every influence to persuade our government to recognize Red China and to abandon Formosa.

We are told that certain polls show that Eisenhower has reached the very height of his "popularity." Based on what? If polls do show a great "popularity," how much is it due to public ignorance—to the slanting and playing down by most of the press and radio of the real facts about the danger we are in. We in the National Economic Council are in touch with representative people in all States of the Union — Americans who are alert and informed and who love their country. And they are astounded to see the way she is being sold out.

If, as someone has said, these great issues had been decided by a flip of the coin, we would have won at least part of the time. But we have lost diplomatically nearly every time in the past 20 years.

Clearly certain persons and certain groups here in America have designs for world government of some type. The placing of America first is no part of their designs.

Who are these persons and these groups?

We could name some of them with certainty. There is an impressive volume of evidence as to who some of the others are. And we think the Congress should set about looking into this — unless the Congress is willing to see the United States continue on its way down the drain.

We are not necessarily blaming President Eisenhower, though as President of the United States, it is his duty to support the Constitution, and if that doesn't mean supporting and maintaining the independence of the United States, it means absolutely nothing.

It is the advisers of President Eisenhower, many of them little known or wholly unknown to the American people, that we are thinking about. If the American people found out more about who they are and what they have been doing, and why they have advised as they have, they might have a better chance of saving America from destruction.

Let us take a look at Mr. Bernard M. Baruch. Mr.

Baruch first came to general public notice during the First World War. He was close to Wilson and headed an important board of his Government. He also was close to Colonel E. M. House, a sinister figure about whom Westbrook Pegler has had a good deal to say in recent months.

Mr. Baruch is generally understood to have made a large fortune in the stock market. He was known for many years in such newspapers as The New York Times as "an adviser of Presidents." More recently The Times has spoken of him, apparently with some knowledge, as "the adviser of Presidents."

What has Mr. Baruch advised? Did he advise Wilson to get into World War I? Did he advise Roosevelt to force Japan into her venture at Pearl Harbor, which brought America into war on two fronts — a development that prompted Churchill to say jubilantly that this was what he had long been "working for"? Did he advise Truman to abandon China to the Reds? Has he been advising Eisenhower on the disastrous retreats in Southeast Asia?

One of the worst mistakes America ever made was in trying to destroy Germany. We have spent billions since then in trying to build Germany up, and from the latest news we have from Germany it is clear that a growing number of Germans demand that Germany, like Austria, be neutralized. If that were to happen, it would be the end of any hope to keep Europe, North and East of the Pyrenees, free from Communist domination.

Who was responsible for this tragic policy of reducing Germany to a goat pasture, as the phrase was in those days? We realize that at the Quebec Conference in 1944 Harry D. White, a close associate of Communists, devised what became known as the Morgenthau Plan. But both Morgenthau and White were minor figures. Who was prompting them?

Light is perhaps thrown on the real authors by a statement made by Mr. Baruch on Friday, June 22, 1945, before the Senate Military Affairs Committee. According to The New York Times of June 23rd, Mr. Baruch "proposed division of the Junker estates, control of her export and import trade and the uprooting of German assets and business organizations everywhere." The Times further quoted Mr. Baruch as saying that "the United Nations should smash Germany's 'war potential' by removing to friendly countries or destroying her heavy industries."

According to The Times' account, Mr. Baruch urged a comprehensive, all-embracing agreement with Russia on the major peace problems, and he said: "In turn the Western Democracies will suspect Russia of seeking to communize Germany. The Germans can be expected to resort to every imaginable trick to foment discord among the four occupying nations." And he further said: "I have no fear of the spread of Bolshevism. Jobs and high standards of living are the preventive anti-toxins."

Was Mr. Baruch in fact the real author of the Morgenthau Plan? In spite of his having no fear of Bolshevism in the United States, Soviet Russia, as above indicated, has succeeded in getting the best of the United States in every international conference held since Mr. Baruch made his statement.

The Times further quoted Mr. Baruch as saying: "Russia and other countries are entitled to labor reparations, particularly if they will include in their labor battalions the principal war-makers, the Nazis, the Gestapo, members of the General Staff, geopoliticians, war industrialists, war financiers, leaving the ordinary peasants and workers."

Since Mr. Baruch was so important an "adviser to the President," does this not suggest he was an important author of the revival of slave labor?

Mr. Winston Churchill, then Prime Minister of Great Britain, arrived in New York Monday, January 5, 1953, just before Mr. Eisenhower was to take office as President, and went immediately to stay at the home of Mr. Baruch. On Tuesday morning The New York Times had a picture on the front page, and so did every other American newspaper of any consequence (and so, we are reliably informed, did every newspaper of any consequence in Europe), depicting Mr. Baruch with Mr. Churchill on his right and Mr. Eisenhower on his left. Mr. Churchill stayed with Mr. Baruch until he left for Washington.

Now, as it happens, the Republican Party platform of 1952 on which Mr. Eisenhower was elected President, pledged the Republican Party to liquidate the "mess" in Washington. It charged that the leaders of the Truman Administration had "lost the peace" at the end of the War that had been won by our men in 1945. It condemned the two former Administrations for betraying Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland and Czechoslovakia. It condemned Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

Yet, in spite of assertions to the contrary, the Eisenhower Administration has continued to pursue a policy under which America has lost in prestige and Soviet Russia has gained. Under the plea that America must "fulfill her destiny of world leadership" we are in growing danger of becoming absorbed in world government, under which America would do just as she was told by Soviet Russia and the Asiatic nations. Judging by the ease with which certain other nations are swaying our foreign and much of our domestic policy, we have already lost a large part of the control of our own destiny.

Congressman Walter Judd said in substance in an address in New York on May 22nd that Communist China is under the control of Moscow, that Nehru is under the control of Peiping; that Britain is largely influenced by Nehru, and that American policy is largely influenced by Britain.

No one seems to know why America is being so led around by the nose, when we still boast we are the greatest nation in the world. We ought to find out.

Since Mr. Baruch has so long been hailed as America's arch "adviser," the appropriate committee of the Congress should summon him, put him under oath and demand that he tell what he knows.

He could at least tell what "advice" he has been giving these 38 years. And that might throw a good deal of light on the state of affairs today.

ONE WORLD

In 1947, 1948 and 1949 a rash of one world organizations broke out all over the country. The most powerful was "the United World Federalists. It was window-dressed with some of the finest and most respected names in America, and with unlimited finances.

In July, 1949 a booklet entitled "Reds Behind World Federalism" named 40 notorious Reds who organized that outfit in Asheville, N. C. in Feb. 1947 and outlined their scheme to transform the United States into a unit of a Commie controlled "one world" government.

The United Nations decided to try to put over the treaty known as the Genocide Pact. It reads beautifully, very humanitarian, but if the readers read between the lines they will come to the conclusion it benefits the left wing.

The United Nations also has the UNESCO deal by which the UN would take over the molding of our children's minds so as to make them think in global terms instead of the American way of life.

We, the American people, have only one solution—Get the UN out of the US and the US out of the UN.

Ships At Sea

Years long past, in an evil world
Pirate Ships plied uncharted Seas
Looting all wares of world renown —
Slaves and Drugs, GOLD and JEWELS rare.
Under false colors, ruthless men
Robbed and murdered — mere BRAZEN BEASTS
Hooting at GOD, defying CHRIST.
A 20th Century SHIP OF STATE
Sails under a false flag of PEACE
Through blood of Germans, Poles and Czechs
Looting Nations of GOLD, MEN and POWER
Till down she goes — this U. N. SHIP —
MAD MEN and LUCIFER aboard
In time to come, a SHIP OF STATE
Will sail these same well charted Seas
Her CHRISTIAN MEN, not cursed with loot
Need naught — their POWER comes from WITHIN —
About her mast a HALO glows
Shedding FAITH in a world of LIGHT
Saluting GOD, obeying CHRIST.

the actions and the basis for those actions [such as the treasonous United Nations] by our Administration are diametrically opposed to the principles and spirit of our Constitution and our Declaration of Independence from foreign powers. The last three Administrations have been engaged in destroying, by foreign wars, by subversion of the Constitution, by unlawful foreign entanglements and treaties, and by substitution of Karl Marx Socialism for Constitutional Americanism, all that genuine Americans hold dear. Either we will overthrow such men and such alien doctrine, or we shall totally lose our Sovereignty and thereby our Country. "Choose ye this day." There may not be a tomorrow for many of us!

BOTH THE SAME

Earl Browder, former top Communist in the United States, stated: "The program of the Socialist Party and the program of the Communist Party have a common origin in the Communist Manifesto . . . There is no difference, as far as the program is concerned, in final aim."

RESOLUTION

We, the members of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Clark-Lyon Post No. 4731 of Indianola, Miss., unanimously make the following resolution:

WHEREAS — We are convinced that there are malignant threats hanging over our great nation in the form of Communism, Atheism and Mongrelization. As veterans who have fought the enemy from without on foreign soil we dedicate ourselves to battle with this insidious enemy from within. In doing this we carry out our allegiance to our God and country, honor our dead, and preserve our American heritage for our children.

WE HEREBY RESOLVE — To serve our country by defending its Constitution and the sovereignty of our individual states provided therein.

To fight communism in all its forms.

To awaken the people of this country from their apathetic complacency that they may govern themselves and preserve our government of the people, by the people and for the people. We are now being threatened with a totalitarian government of welfare agencies, world organizations, national associations and minority pressure groups. We believe this trend could lead to socialism and eventually communism.

To aid all Races but not at each others expense. To provide equal but separate schools for the Black and White Races. To prevent mongrelization of our nation by avoiding conditions that foster and promote intermarriage of the races. To uphold Segregation in the states that desire it and whose social structure requires it.

To defend the right of minority groups to voice their opinions but also to give the opinions of the majority.

We abhor "a one world, one creed, one color and one form of government" policy. Our flag, our constitution, our American way of life and our educational system must never in any way be subservant to or affected by the United Nations.

To present the truth from both sides on all controversial issues. We can no longer depend on our commercial publications to do this.

To replace hatred and malice with common sense and understanding.

WE FURTHER RESOLVE — To send this Resolution through all channels and publications of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and to carry out its purpose individually and collectively by thought and deed.

To convince our fellow Americans and brother war veterans that there is indeed an ominous threat hanging over our Nation and gain their aid and support in its defense.

To interest ourselves in our government. To seek out, think out and speak out on matters concerning our nation and our individual freedom. To set an example of fearless, freedom loving American citizenship that others might follow.

To support our leaders and have our leaders lead their supporters.

To submit this Resolution to other veterans groups and patriotic and civic organizations in the hope that they may adopt it or similar Resolutions.

CHUCK YOU MAY REPRINT THIS RESOLUTION OR ANY PART THEREOF.

Read The Protocols

The United States of America has no longer a Two Party System. It is now a One Party Nation under the government of an unnamed party. This is undoubtedly the "INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT" referred to by Senator Jenner and General Douglas MacArthur.

Its system of operation has been, internationally, the LEAGUE OF NATIONS, ATLANTIC UNION, UNION NOW, UNITED WORLD-FEDERALISM, THE UNITED NATIONS, NATO, and nationally, what may be termed "silent revolution" or "BARUCH-CRACY".

Its goal is WORLD GOVERNMENT, Judaic, Anti-Christian world domination under the Mosaic Law. This goal can only be reached by the systematic destruction of the Constitution of the United States of America and the violation of its laws.

Is it possible for all patriotic Americans to follow the evolution of this system of planned destruction?

YES!

Your letter of February 1955 refers to me as a "member" of the "Eisenhower team." I wish to set the record straight.

I am a Republican, but am not a member of the team that ignored its 1952 platform. The team that persecuted a Republican Senator; that sabotaged the Bricker Amendment; that, on July 14, 1953, "specifically" urged approval of the infamous NATO Status of Forces Treaty; that has sat on the lid of the notorious Yalta business - and the team that seems willing to desert our American GIs still held in violation of the Panmunjom Truce.

You say: "We need your help! Join the 19-56 'Team' today." I do not intend to "join" any political team that pledges "harmony" with the opposition party - the same party several million Americans voted against in 1952.

AMERICA AWAKE

For the past nine years the AMERICAN people have become increasingly aware that over 90% of the communist agents and spies discovered have been Jews. Since the Jews comprise less than 5% of the American population, this cannot merely be regarded as coincidence. For example; of the twelve atom spies arrested and convicted for treason, eleven were all Jews: Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Morton Sobell, Klaus Fuchs, Harry Gold, David Greenglass, Abraham Brothman, Miriam Moskowitz, Sidney Weinbaum, Joseph Weinberg, Israel Mesharosh.

In addition to their secret agents and spies, the Communist party pretends to function as a legal political party. However, in 1949 the eleven top communist leaders were convicted of conspiracy to overthrow the AMERICAN government, and in 1951 the twenty-one second-string leaders were arrested and convicted. Of these thirty-two

Have We Ceased to Care

Republished from Evening Outlook, Santa Monica, California.

Are American metropolitan newspapers devoting too much space to the idiot antics of Hollywood and Broadway, to sex, divorce and cheap night club brawls, ignoring or only covering events which are shaking the world?

This question arises in discussion of the human rights of some 8,000,000 Asians who of their own choice, fled the North or Communist part of Viet Nam after it was turned over to the Reds by France. Here were almost one Million people who do not believe in communism, abandoning nearly every thing they possessed, leaving their ancestral homes and little farms, risking life itself in their passionate devotion to freedom - to live and worship as they please.

Thousands upon thousands put to sea in half-sinking boats and fragile rafts and were rescued outside the three-mile limit by American and French warships. Some drowned; others were killed or kidnaped by the Communists. Families were torn apart. This happened because the Reds blocked the roads, although they had promised in the Geneva Agreement to "permit and assist" anyone wishing to leave.

Despite all this, the 800,000 flowed on in a great tidal wave of heroic devotees to the cause of freedom, the rights of human beings. Yet the story of this, one of the great migrations of history, the greatest political triumph of the non-Communist world since the end of World War II, received scant coverage in our press.

One wonders if we have ceased to care about human rights when traditionally we should boil with indignation that men, women and children, even of another race, and fighting valiantly for the same cause which we espouse are so brutally mistreated and misplaced.

COMMUNISM IS TREASON!

Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume 10, Page 563 Russia.

"South Russia furnished the first Jews in Poland... The first actual mention, however, of Jews in the Polish Chronicles was under date of the eleventh century. It appears that the Jews were then living in Gnesen at that time the religious capitol of the Polish Kingdom. Some of them were wealthy, owning Christian slaves; they even engaged in the slave trade, according to the custom of the times. The pious Queen Judith, wife of the Polish King, Ladislaus Herman, died 1805, spent large sums of money in purchasing the freedom of Christian slaves owned by Jews."

traitors to our beloved country, twenty-two [69%] were Jews, and another five were negroes.

Among these modern day Judases who have sold out their country for Red gold are: Gerhart Eisler, Jacob Stachel, Israel Regenstreif, Gilbert Green[berg], Gus Hall, Irving Potash, Carl Weissberg, Israel Amter, Marian Maxwell, Isidore Begun, Al Bittelman, George Charney, Betty Gannett, Simon Gerson, Victory Jerome, Jacob Mindel, Alex Trachtenerg, Louis Weinstock, Fred Fine, William Marron, Sidney Steinberg.
